The weather was quite warm yesterday, but the air felt greatly improved since the late rains.

We acknowledge an invitation to eat turtle soup at the National Hotel to-day. We shall do ourselves the pleasure to dine with Col. Brown.

"Old Prob" will give us to-day slight changes in the temperature, partly cloudy weather, with local rains.

The 26th annual meeting of the Stockholders of the N. C. R. R. Co., will be held in Greensboro on the 8th of July next. See advertisement.

The Spring term of the Fetter School closes in Oxford this week. The Fall session will begin after six weeks vacation.

The decoration of the Federal graves, at the National Cemetery in this city, will occur on the 31st inst.

Our young citizens who visited Charlotte last week begin to feel like themselves again this week. They will doubtless become thoroughly rested by the next Centennial.

We learn that Mr. J. R. Thomas will establish a steam saw-mill and grist mill at Merry Oaks, N. C., and is now on his way to Richmond to conclude the purchase of his machinery.

The Rescue Engine was out on a "spurt" yesterday afternoon, performing in the Capitol Square, much to the satisfaction of the city authorities who were subjecting the engine and company to official inspection. The performances were highly gratifying to the spectators, a stream of water being thrown over the top of the Baptist Church steeple.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE WOUNDED ARTILLERYMEN.—Messrs. Harrison and Bashford have just received a fresh lot of beer from Jacob Segar & Co., which they will sell to-morrow, the entire proceeds of which during the day will be given to the fund being raised for the Artillerymen wounded in Charlotte last week.—This is commendable.

MESSRS. LYON, DALLY & CO.—This live and energetic firm of Tobacco Manufacturers have been established for some time in the thriving town of Durham, N. C., and are doing a fine business, in smoking, chewing and leaf tobacco.

We have seen some of their bright and beautiful wrappers, some of that 15,000 lb. lot that Northern buyers are so eager to procure, when Capt. T. B. Lyon, Jr., calls it "His Pet."

A WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE IN FRANKLIN COUNTY.—We learn from our Louisburg correspondent that on Tuesday Mrs. Minerva Strother, wife of John P. Strother, living near Perry's Chapel, Franklin county, shot herself in the head with a pistol, the ball passing entirely through, causing instant death. The affair occurred in his own home. Cause unknown.

BASE BALL.—A meeting of the Athletic B. B. Club will be held at the office of Lawrence & Winston Monday evening, May 31st, at 8 o'clock A. M. The old members are requested to attend, and as many new ones as desire to join. The object of the meeting is to re-organize the company.

The NEWS Job Office is the largest, cheapest and best in the city.

RATHER SLOW IN COMING.—We received yesterday by mail a communication from Elizabeth City, dated May twelfth, giving us a most interesting account of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of the Odd Fellows of the State, then in session in that place. Where this communication has been during this time it is hard to say, as fourteen days are hardly necessary for the ordinary transmission of mail matter between Elizabeth City and this point.

E. P. HARRISS.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. E. P. Harriss, so well and favorably known to the North Carolina mercantile public, has connected himself with the large hat and cap house of James E. Pratt, Baltimore. The fact of Mr. Harriss' association with the house is proof of its ability to sell at prices that will secure trade. We commend Mr. Harriss and his excellent house to the North Carolina trade.

SPELLING MATCH.—Some rare fun may be expected in Raleigh next Thurday night at a Spelling Match, which is to be held for the benefit of Person Street Church. A prize will be given to the champion speller. Tickets of admission will be 25 cents, and each person is expected to bring a pound of something if only a pound of salt or cheese. These pounds, neatly done up in paper, will be, at the conclusion of the Spelling Match, sold at auction to the highest bidder, the pounds of which, together with the admission fee, it is hoped will make up a neat little sum for the aid of Person Street Church. The place of having the match will be announced in due time.

A GALLANT SOLDIER.—When the accident which befel young Williams at Charlotte had produced such a panic as caused some hesitation in filling the place of the wounded gunner, private A. A. Beavers promptly volunteered his services, and held his dangerous position until the full number of the salute was fired. The ladies of the family of Col. Wm. Johnston, Mayor of Charlotte, were so much pleased with the act that they transmitted to Mr. Beavers a beautiful bouquet. A handsome note from Col. Johnston accompanied the gift, and the gallant young soldier is made happy in the applause of the fair and the approval of the highest dignitary of Charlotte.

THE GRAY AND THE BLUE COMMINGLING.—The Raleigh Light Infantry have accepted an invitation from the Federal Memorial committee, appointed by the Grand Army of the Republic, to participate on the 31st inst., in the decoration of the graves of the Federal soldiers who are buried in the Cemetery near this city, and in accepting the invitation concluded their letter as follows:

"We are willing at all times to pay our respects to a soldier who died in a cause he thought was just. We claim that for our own soldiers, and accord the same sentiment to all other patriots. We will take pleasure in strewing flowers on the graves of your soldiers, and in sowing sulphur and salt on the graves of Beast Butler and Morton."

We learn the Raleigh Light Artillery have also accepted a like invitation. This will be the first occasion in the South where the Southern soldier has participated as soldiers in the decoration of the Federal graves.

CENTENNIAL DAY AT LOUISBURG AND OTHER MATTERS.—Our correspondent at Louisburg says that the 20th was celebrated in that town with much spirit, the merchants closing their stores, the schools suspending, and a general holiday enjoyed. A pic-nic was had some three miles up Tar River, and Senator C. M. Cooke delivered a beautiful and appropriate address.

Excellent seasons for gardens and crops are being enjoyed in the Louisburg section.

The closing exercises of the Male Academy and Female Seminary will take place on Wednesday night next.

Franklin County Convention to nominate a candidate to represent that county in the State Convention will be held on the 5th of June.—Among the names mentioned in this connection are Messrs. J. E. Thomas, W. F. Martin, A. J. P. Harris, Joshua Perry, Wm. H. Mitchell and W. D. Coppedge.

MRS. STONEWALL JACKSON.—Among the pleasant incidents which relieved the painful accidents at Charlotte of some of their suffering, was the prompt and unremitting attention of the ladies of the place to the wounded. None were more assiduous in attention than Mrs. Jackson. One of the wounded was Mr. Bingham, well known to have been a Federal soldier, and an artilleryman during the war. This was known to Mrs. J., yet she sent him a bouquet, accompanied with a kind note inclosing ten dollars, regretting that her circumstances prevented a larger donation. She afterwards visited the wounded man in person, sitting at his bedside, and ministering to his wants with the most tender concern. And she has repeated her visits daily, and will probably do so as long as Mr. Bingham remains in Charlotte.

BAUM'S MEAT HOUSE.—See elsewhere the attractive announcement of Mr. Baum, whose meat house on Wilmington street, opposite the market, has now a reputation for superior mountain beef, lamb, mutton, shoat, &c., that would draw custom even without advertisement. His porter house steaks are almost equal to those of Fulton Market, and his mutton chops are excellent. Try him on once, and you will go again.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.—We give place with pleasure to the following resolutions:

HEAD QUARTERS,
RALEIGH LIGHT INFANTRY,
RALEIGH, May 25, 1875.

Feeling grateful to a merciful and all-wise Providence for a safe return to our homes and families, we feel also that much is due to the prudence and forethought of our commander and officers. Therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That the sincere and heartfelt thanks of this company be unanimously extended to Major B. C. Manly, "Our Captain," not only for his manifold qualifications as a high-toned gentleman, but for his strict military discipline and impartiality as a commander, during our recent visit to the Mecklenburg Centennial.

Resolved, 2. That as our Captain he has our hearts truest affection and confidence, and we trust that nought but death alone will ever sever the ties that now bind him to us.

Resolved, 3. That a copy of these resolutions be handed Capt. Manly, and that they be also inserted in the city papers.

J. T. PULLEN, } Com.

GASTON BRIDGE.—The people of Brunswick, Va., are agitating the question of rebuilding the bridge at Gaston, and thus restoring a direct communication between the R. & G. Road and Petersburg. At the very close of the war, the bridge was hastily and unwisely fired. Its destruction made a gap which the R. & G. Company was not able to fill, and the wants of travel and traffic were supplied by the rebuilding of the bridge at Weldon, also burnt. But almost as a matter of course, both freight and travel kept on to Norfolk.

We have been surprised that Petersburg has been so well content with the loss entailed by the burning of the bridge. For more than twenty five years that city enjoyed almost a monopoly of the advantages growing out of the construction of the R. & G. Road. That road has no special interest in supplying the loss of the bridge, as its purposes are well enough subserved, but would interpose no obstacles, and would probably aid in the measure.

We are glad to see the question stirred.

PRESENT AT THE CENTENNIAL.—Says the Charlotte Observer in its details of last Thursday's operations in that town:

"In Saturday's paper, we neglected unintentionally, to mention in the list of prominent gentlemen on the stand at the Fair Grounds: Hon. A. S. Merrimon, U. S. Senator from this State, Hon. W. M. Robbins, of Statesville, Congressman from the Seventh Districts, the names of both of whom we had among our notes, and others of whom we unfortunately failed to keep record. We herewith give an incomplete list of prominent personages who were in attendance at the Centennial, omitting the names of the orators, marshals, and others whom we have previously mentioned: Judge A. A. McKoy, Hon. F. E. Shober, Capt. Jas. L. Robinson, Col. Thos. S. Kenan, Capt. S. A. Ashe, F. H. Busbee, Esq., Col. T. M. Holt, Johnstone Jones, Esq., Senator W. A. Graham, Hon. A. M. Waddell, Maj. Robert Bingham, Col. Cad. Jones, Secretary of State Howerton, Col. S. L. Fremont, and many others, from this and other States.

The following members of the press were present, and perhaps others whose names have escaped us: Messrs. Foster, Bennett and Henry, of the New York Herald, Elam, New York Times, Handy, New York Tribune, representatives of Frank Leslie's and other illustrated papers, Burrows, Washington Star, Foard, Baltimore Sun, Redfield, Cincinnati Commercial, Alfriend, Louisville Courier-Journal and Atlanta Herald, Handy, Richmond Enquirer, Brown, Atlanta Constitution, Carter, Augusta Constitutionalist, Brooker, Atlanta Herald, Shearer, Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald, Dalby, Norfolk Landmark, Covington, Charleston News and Courier, Selby, Columbia Phœnix, Morton, Petersburg Index-Appeal, Speights, Greenville (S. C.) News, Robertson, Rock Hill (S. C.) Grange, Wilson, (S. C.) Press and Banner, Cameron and Woodson, Raleigh News, Harris, Wilmington Star, Englehard, Moore and Davis, Wilmington Journal, Myrover, Fayetteville Gazette, Duffy and Albright, Greensboro Patriot, Whitford, State Agricultural Journal, Bruner, Salisbury Watchman, Furman, Asheville Citizen, Malone, Asheville Expositor, Murrill and Tomlinson, Piedmont Press, Mallard, Statesville Landmark, Bonitz, Goldsboro Messenger, Durham, Shelby Banner, Babbington, Shelby Aurora, DeLane, Lincoln Progress, Wolfe, Monroe Enquirer, Patrick, Wadesboro Herald, Gales, Polkton Ansonian, Duckett, Rockingham Courier, Pool, Newbern Journal of Commerce, Boylin, of the Concord Register, Springs, Mt. Airy Watchman, McDiarmid, Lumberton Robesonian, and we little doubt that there were others who escaped our observation.

ANOTHER EXPLANATION.—[From the Brooklyn Argus]—The country will hear with keen satisfaction that Vice-President Wilson's trip South had no political significance. He says he simply wanted to let folks down there see what a man who neither chews, smokes, swears, drinks whiskey, nor goes to chicken-fights on Sunday, looks like.

Ben Hill, of Georgia, says that secession was a mistake, but no crime; while radicalism is a crime and no mistake.

THE UNWRITTEN HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA.—A short while since we published under the above heading an account of the "Porterage," located near Louisburg, Franklin county. We find the following in the Fort Worth (Texas) Standard, Messrs. Williams & Saunders, proprietors, one of these gentleman it appears, being a native of this State and a former occupant of the Porterage. Says the Standard, in referring to this bit of history:

The above extract is taken from the 'Raleigh News," a paper which has been established since we left North Carolina. We know somewhat of the history of that location, having lived for many years in that quaint hipped roof house with dormer windows. This house was the only one in the neighborhood painted red with white door and window facings. The writer in the "News" has got matters slightly mixed up, the old Porterage church with its ancient pews and lordly oaks does not, nor never did belong to the same tract of land whereon the ancient hipped roof house stands. It was a mile further on the road to Franklinton, or as the road was then called the Hillsborough road. Porterage church was deeded to the English Crown, and if our memory is not at fault, some 4 or 5 acres on which it stood with it. This was before we knew any thing about it, but it belonged and was cut off a tract belonging to a gentleman named James C. Jones, at the time we lived in that neighborhood. Old Poterage was occupied by the English church for a time but they ceased to preach in it, and it was then for two or three years occupied by the Methodist circuit riders, after which it was neglected as the fit abode of bats and owls. But it belongs to the British Crown to this day, though it is not worth a cent. We think this man James C. Jones, married a daughter of one of the Jeffreys, but as the laws of North Carolina required that a man's wife had to convey her right to land to her husband under her own signature; she died without doing so. Jones became deeply involved, his property was all sold at a sheriff's sale to satisfy his creditors, the title to the land was conveyed to the purchaser, and after several years Jones' children sued for the land under the plea that their mother had never conveyed any right to their father they recovered the land, and if we mistake not it belongs to them this day, though the right of the British crown to the old Porterage was never brought in question. The hipped roof house lies a mile nearer Louisburg, and at the time when the writer's mother purchased it belonged to Dr. Richard Fenner, who moved shortly afterwards to Tennessee where he lived and died. He raised some very distinguished sons. Dr. Erasmus Fenner, distinguished himself as a great surgeon in New Orleans, where he lived and died. Dr Richard Fenner moved to Little Rock, became distinguished as long as he lived, and if we mistake not, there is a son of one of the brothers who now is winning a great name in the city of Shreveport. When our mother died, the land with the old hipped roof house and grove of stately oaks was bought by Col. H. J. G. Ruffin, and we think belongs to his heirs to this day.

In connection with the history of this old Porterage church, we will tell of a circumstance which took place in those days. The Jeffreys family were noted for their bravery and high sense of honor. They never allowed any one to reflect the least upon themselves or family, and when any one attempted it he was held responsible. There had been given a ball or party in the neighborhood at which many of the young people gathered. Among them was a beautiful young lady named Sally Jeffreys, a sister of Marmaduke Jeffreys. She had been engaged to a young gentleman for some time, and was soon to be married. The morning after the ball when the horses had been hitched to the carriages and sulkies, and the company was ready to leave, Miss Sally Jeffreys in a gay and lively mood, jumped into the sulkey of the young gentleman she was soon to marry, she and a Miss Hunt, and was in the act of driving off when the young gentleman cried out to her: "For God sake don't touch the horse with the whip." She in her wild gaiety heeded not his words, but give the horse a crack with the whip, and he dashed off with lightning speed; in a short time the sulkey was upset, throwing Miss Sally Jeffreys with great force against a stump killing her instantly. Miss Hunt was cast beyond the stump and recovered with little or no injury. The stump remained many years after, we have seen it frequently. In those days the Methodist itenerant preachers occupied old Porterage as a place to preach, and the Rev. John Earley, of Virginia, was then the itinerant preacher. He was called on to preach the funeral, and in the course of his sermon said that "Miss Jeffreys had been dancing all night before and he had no doubt she was then dancing in hell." Marmaduke Jeffreys rose from his seat, advanced to the pulpit, took the Rev. Mr. Early by the coat collar, dragged him out of doors and gave him a terrible whipping, remarking "he might think what he pleased but he should not express it."

NEW YORK UNDER DEMOCRATIC RULE.—The amount of tax which the people of New York are called to pay this year is three million five hundred thousand dollars less than last year. Last year the rate was 7½ mills, realizing an aggregate of $15,227,000. This year the rate is 5½ mills, realizing an aggregate of $12,314,000. It is possible that this sum may be further decreased. Governor Tilden has yet to scutinize these appropriation bills, and under the new constitutional amendments he can strike out any single item that does not meet his approval. It is therefore presumable that further reductions will be made.

"The words "treason" and "rebellion" have nearly passed out of northern mouths, and Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, in their present glorification of a successful treason, are suggesting to themselves that, after all, perhaps the supreme fault of the South that it did not succeed.—St. Louis Republican.

It is a curious fact that a man is never a closer reader of a newspaper than after he has stopped it for "cause." His neighbors will testify to this truth, and more than one individual will blush as he reads this paragraph and plead guilty to himself.

Among the controversies which it is said Sherman has brought on by the publication of his memoirs is one with General Grant in regard to the march to the sea. It is said that Adam Badeau and Charles A. Dana in their lives of Grant give him the credit of the movement which Sherman claims for himself. People who are anxious on this account may console themselves with the simple fact that General Grant gave Sherman the whole credit for the march, years ago in his report, publishing in full his arguments against it and Sherman's urgent requests to be allowed to follow out his design.—Washington Chronicle.

A MILLIONAIRE'S MANSION RANSACKED WHILE HIS TWELVE SERVANTS SLEPT.—Mr. G. Norton Miller's mansion, No. 41 Fifth avenue, New York, was entered by burglars on Thursday night, and robbed of gold and silver ware valued at about $10,000. They got in from the rear. The robbery was not discovered until Friday morning. When the servants got up they found a long ladder resting against the back of the house, and reaching almost to the top story, where they slept. The robbers climbed from the yard to the covered piazza on the second story, and forcing the door open on the piazza they broke open another door leading into the drawing-room.

The work was so noiselessly done that none of the members of Mr. Miller's family were awakened. After they got inside the house the burglars descended to the reception-room in the first story. The marks of candle grease covered the costly carpets, showing the rooms they had ransacked. In the hall at the end of the reception-room is a butler's pantry, in which is a large safe containing Mr. Miller's family plate, valued at over $10,000, nearly all of which the robbers took away.

Mr. Miller is a millionaire and retired merchant. He employs twelve servants. He prized the stolen silverware very highly, as it had been in the family over a hundred years.

The Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal has some interesting bits of matrimonial grossip. Miss Lizze Knowlton, who writes for the Cincinnati Gazette, is about to be married to Mr. Harry Dodge, of Georgetown. This is the third Harry Dodge who has married in about the same number of years. They all belong to the same family in Georgetown. This it not as bad, however, as the marrying which was done in the Dodge family some years ago. The day Major Ben Perly Poore married his wife, who was a Miss Dodge, Mr. Lanman married her sister, and another sister and two brothers were all married the same day. It was a very large family, so that although there were five married in one day there were a few left. Strangers are always bewildered when visiting Georgetown to determine which ones of the Dodge family they know and which are strangers. All of the ladies are quite handsome. Harry Cooke, the young banker, married one of the Misses Dodge. The gentlemen are as clever as the ladies are handsome.

Miss Knowlton has been a clerk in the Quartermaster General's office for some years. She has just resigned, and is allowed a month's leave with pay. Miss Knowlton will have five bridesmaids—her sister Miss Louis Knowlton; Miss Josie Jewel, daughter of the Postmaster General; Miss Carrie Dodge, Miss Ella Ray and Miss Simpson, daughter of Capt. Simpson, of the navy. Those whose positions toward the many parties who have married during the past year have compelled them to make bridal presents must find it quite a tax. For instance, the President and Mrs. Grant presented a set of pearls to Miss Murphy, and the bride of Gen. Badeau was also the recipient of a costly present from them. They will of course, do the same for the bride of Gen. Sheridan. Like all customs, this one of giving bridal presents has grown to outrageous proportions, and will meet will a reaction.—Boston Post.

A BRAIN DESTROYING MALADY.—That insomnia, or inability to sleep, has become very prevalent of late years, is sufficiently evidenced by the fact that numberless remedies have been introduced within the last decade specially intended for its cure, and that new sedatives are continually cropping up. But no medicinal agent has so widely and clearly established its claims as a genuine soporific as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. That it removes this brain destroying inability far more effectually than the bromides, chlorals and veratiates in use, is not to be wondered at when we consider that such drugs act only on the brain, which is not the source of the evil, while the Bitters rectify the alimentary disturbances which originate it. It is admitted by physicians that dyspepsia and non-assimilation of the food produce sleeplessness. The Bitters overcome these obstacles to repose as well as those urinary troubles which are also said to interfere with it. A wineglass or two of this wholesom sedative invigorant at bed time rarely fails to induce tranquil repose.

Notice to Correspondents.

No letter can be published in these columns which is not authenticated by the name of its author. This we require, not for publication, but as a guarantee of the good faith of correspondents. Persons who violate this rule will have their communications consigned to the waste-basket.

THE General of the Army who above all others had gained a reputation in the eyes of the world for fierce courage, is charged by Montgomery Blair with a deficiency of that soldierly quality. Think of it! that Sherman, who rode rough-shod over the militia of Georgia, who trampled out the remnant of rebels that had held on to Savannah, who marched through South Carolina and burnt all the houses that dared stand in the way of his progress, who had the bravery to burn Columbia under the very eye of General Hampton, who with his 75,000 men had the hardihood to encounter Johnston with his 25,000 half-starved and half clad men at Bentonville, should now be charged with timidity! Oh, the injustice of mankind!

VIEWS OF A NORTHERN MAN.

We are in the receipt of a letter from Plymouth, enclosing one from a Northern man to a colored citizen of Plymouth, from which we make extracts. The writer has been and probably still is a Republican, but his eyes are opened to the true interests of the colored man, and to the sinking fortunes of his party.

We commend the advice to the colored man, hoping for his own sake he will take it. We will not canvass for his vote. He has heretofore turned his back upon the white man, or at least upon the Democrat, and shut his ears to all advice. The door to repentance is open, but he will not be pressed to enter therein. The white men of the State can do very well without him:

"I will give you now my advice about what course the colored men of the South ought to take. The carpet-baggers with the colored people to aid them have created so large a debt in the Southern States that the taxes will keep them poor for years to come.

Elect men to office whose interests are for economy, and those that have intelligence enough to know what legislation is needed. Vote for none but capable men, no matter what party they belong to. By that course you will always be on good terms with the white men. What is for their interest is for yours. By such a course you will get along harmoniously together. Grant is played out, and the Republicans will never again elect a President and ought not to if they cannot manage better than they have for the last four years.

Yours Respectfully,
A. CHURCH."

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

We are gratified to learn that the old students of the University and the friends of higher education generally show most commendable enthusiasm in the revival of that venerable institution. The following are the resolutions of the Board of Trustees under which contributions are solicited, and the form of the condition framed under the best legal advice:

Resolved, On motion of K. P. Battle, that a special committee be appointed, who shall be authorized to adopt such measures as they may deem advisable for raising contributions for the use of the University, on such conditions and limitations as may be agreed on with the donors.

Messrs. Kemp P. Battle, B. F. Moore, W. A. Graham, Paul C. Cameron and John Manning were appointed on this committee. On motion of John Manning,

Resolved, That Messrs. W. A. Graham, B. F. Moore and W. H. Battle be Trustees of the funds to be raised by contributions for the maintenance of the University.

The undersigned agree to pay to William A. Graham, B. F. Moore and William H. Battle, as Trustees for the University of North Carolina, the several sums opposite their respective names, on condition that the same shall not be used in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, to pay any debt or liability of the University, contracted or incurred prior to the first day of April, 1875, but the whole of said amount, and all interest thereon which may from time to time accrue, shall be devoted solely to the revival and maintenance of said University.

The committee to solicit contributions desire to get all donations possible pledged so that the trustees at their meeting on the 16th of June can show the world that they are able to redeem all pledges in regard to salaries. It is contemplated soon to send an agent in the field to raise a permanent endowment. At present however contributions are asked for, payable annually for five years. Mr. Kemp P. Battle tells us that on this basis $5,000 was tendered voluntarily, and without moving out of his tracks the subscription was swelled to $8,000. Most of those who have thus far subscribed have pledged $100 per annum for five years, making $500 each. Mr. Battle requests that all those disposed to aid the revival of the University will notify him at once that he may send them contribution papers for their signatures. He is sending out such papers to those who he knows will actively aid the work, in all cases requesting a report to be sent in by the 10th of June.

As was to be expected the National Republican makes the most of Judge Kerr's centennial speech to confirm its correctness as a prophet of evil. The celebration was foredoomed to the anathemas of the Republican, and the most patriotic utterances would have been distorted by the same malignity into the false construction that ascribes hypocrisy to Jeff. Davis, and falsehood to the Hon. W. D. Kelly. Orators and writers do not trouble themselves to shape their sentiments to the wishes of the Republican.

The worst that can be said of Judge Kerr's speech is that his affections clung too strongly to his native land, and he expressed too freely for the occasion his sense of its calamity. Men brought up to revere the constitution framed in so much wisdom, and with such careful regard to the rights of the States, are not apt to see with patience violations of it, nor keep silence, if voice of warning can save it.

Judge Kerr but expresses a feeling the most loyal Northern statesman will not be afraid to utter: "As American citizens we are proud of the greatness of the Republic, and we are ready whenever the government shall be administered in wisdom and in equity to salute its honored and star-decked ensign as the flag of free hearts, hopes and homes."

Who will dare say that the Government is now administered "in wisdom, and in equity." Who will dare say that the South has not been oppressed and its rights denied, not that it was disloyal, but that the administration party might find employment for its tools, and pretexts for its tyranny? Who will dare deny that the North itself is not conscious of this, and is turning its back upon the party which has so misled them as to the real condition of the South? And if the North finds itself compelled to speak, is it not natural, that the South, the victim, should do so?

It was only a question of taste after all, and we are free to say that we would have preferred that Judge Kerr should have deferred the expression of his opinions to another forum. But free in speech as he was, he stands acquitted of disloyalty, unless indeed free speech is to be regarded by the adminstration organs as altogether unwarrantable and treasonable.

THE CENTENNIAL.

In our notice of the Centennial we promised to rely upon our friends of the Charlotte Observer for details. The Observer has been full indeed, but has hitherto been filled with the speeches, toasts, &c., things difficult to epitomize. The issue of the 25th is more special, and we avail ourselves freely of its reports, giving such extracts as we think will be acceptable:

THE PROCESSION AGAIN.

Quite a number of matters connected with the procession should have been noted ere this, and referring again to the matter, we mention that a delegation of the Burns' Club of Columbia, S. C., preceded by their piper, as also delegations from the Wilmington and Fayetteville Scotch societies took part in the parade along with the Charlotte Caledonian Club, whose guests they were, and whose flag the ancient Scottish Lion, rampant, surrounded with thistles and the proud motto of their country Nemo Me impune lacessit—emblazoned thereon was unfurled and placed at the head of their column. They attracted a great deal of attention.

* * * * * * * *

The citizens of Cleaveland county marched behind a banner which was inscribed "May 20th, 1775, May 20th, 1875," and also patriotic references to Gen. Shelby, the battle of King's Mountain, &c.

Another feature in the procession, was the banner of Mecklenburg's mother—old Anson. On the front of the banner was the inscription—"May 20th, 1775—Anson rejoices in the glory of her daughter." On the reverse side—"Allegiance ceases when protection is withdrawn.' On the transparency displayed on the speakers' stand at night, were the words "Anson greets Mecklenburg"—"Honor to whom honor is due."

INCIDENTS, REMARKS, &C.

As we, and every one else have remarked, there has never, perhaps, been gathered together anywhere an equal number of people who maintained such excellent order. Affrays were almost unheard of, a case of drunkenness was exceedingly rare, and there was next to no boisterousness. In short, the behavior was such as was to have been expected from an assemblage of Southern gentleman. Excepting three accidents, no one of which was or is likely to result fatally, nothing occurred to throw a damper on the pleasure of the crowd.

The Richmond Howitzers were presented by the Hornet Fire Company of Charlotte, with a large Hornet's nest, which was placed on the top of their flag staff, and afterwards carried off to Richmond by the recipients. The Anson county banner was presented to the Hornet Fire Company, and now adorns their Hall.

HONORS TO GOV. BROGDEN.

On Friday afternoon, the cadets of the Carolina Military Institute, under command of Col. Thomas, accompanied by the citadel band, under the leadership of cadet Poujaud, waited upon Gov. Brogden, and after serenading him, were addressed in quite a felicitous style by His Excellency, from the steps of the Democrat office. Gov. Brogden left the same night, expressing the greatest delight with his visit and the incidents of the occasion.

THE CENTENNIAL BALL

On Friday night was a brilliant and successful termination of the exercises so auspiciously begun on Wednesday. "The beauty and the chivalry," not only of the two Carolinas but of other States, was represented, and so many beautiful women and handsome men, were never before gathered together in a ball room in this city. The revelry was continued until nearly daylight, when the dancers dispersed after a season of unalloyed pleasure. The greatest praise is due the managers for the style in which it was conducted, and the Centennial ball was another feather in Charlotte's cap.

THE MAN-EATING TREE.

Horrible Produce of Nature—The Devil-Fish of the Vegetable Kingdom.

If you can imagine a pineapple eight feet high and thick in proportion, resting upon its base and denuded of leaves, you will have a good idea of the trunk of the tree, which, however, was not the color of ananana, but a dark, dingy brown, and appearently as hard as iron. From the apex of this fusticated cone, at least two feet in diameter, eight huge leaves sheer to the ground, like doors swinging back on their hinges. These leaves, which were joined at the top of the trees at regular intervals, were eleven or twelve feet long, and shaped very much like the leaves of an American agave, or century plant. They are two feet through in their thickest point and three feet wide, tapering to a sharp point that looked like a cow's horn, very convex on the outer (but now under) surface, and on the under (now upper, surface slightly concave. This concave face was thickly set with strong thorny hooks like those upon the head of a teazle. These leaves hanging limp and lifeless, deadgreen in color, had in appearance the massive strength of oak fibre The apex of the cone was a round white concave figure, like a smaller plate set within a larger one. This was not a flower, but a receptacle, and there exuded into it a clear, treacly, liquid honey, sweet, possessed of violent intoxicating and soporific properties. From underneath the rim (so to speak) of the undermost plate, a series of long, hairy, green tendrils, stretched out in every direction toward the horizon. These were seven or eight feet long and tapered from four inches to a half inch in diameter, yet they stretched out stiffly as iron rods. Above these (from between the upper and under cup) six white, almost transparent palpi reared themselves toward the sky, twirling and twisting with a marvellous incessant motion, yet constantly reaching upward. Thin as reed and frail as quills, apparently, were yet five or six feet tall, and were so constantly and vigorously in motion, with such a subtle, sinuous, silent throbbing against the air, with their suggestions of serpents flayed, yet dancing on their tails. My observation on this occasion were suddenly interrupted by the natives, who had been shrieking around the tree with their shrill voices, and chanting what Hendrick told me were propitiatory hymns to the great tree devil. With still wilder shrieks and chants they now surrounded one of the women, and urged her with the points of their javelins, until slowly, and with despairing face she climbed up the stalk of the tree and stood on the summit of the cone, the palpi swimming all about her. "Tsik! Tsik!" (drink! drink!) cried the man. Stooping, she drank of the viscid fluid in the cup, rising instantly again with wild frenzy in her face and convulsive cords in her limbs. But she did not jump down as she seemed to intend to do. Oh, no! The atrocious cannibal tree, that had been so inert and dead, came to sudden life. The slender, delicate palpi, with the fury of starved serpents, quivered a moment over her head, then, as if instinct with demoniac intelligence, fastened upon her in sudden coil round and round her neck and arms, and while her awful screams and yet more awful laughter rose wildly to be instantly strangled down again in a gurgling moan, the tendrils one after another, like great green serpents, with brutal energy and infernal rapidity, rose, protracted themselves and wrapped her about in fold after fold, ever tightening with cruel swiftness and savage tenacity of anacondas fastening upon their prey. It was the barbarity of the Laocoon without its beauty—this strange, horrible murder. And now the great leaves rose slowly and stiffly, like the arms of a derrick, erected themselves in the air, approached one another and closed about the dead and hampered victim with the silent force of a hydraulic press and the ruthless purpose of a thumb-screw. A moment more, and while I could see the basis of these great levers pressing more tightly toward each other from their interstices, there trickled down the stalk of the tree great streams of the viscid honey-like fluid, mingled horribly with the blood and oozing viscera of the victim. At sight of this the savages gathered around me, yelling madly, bounded forward, crowded to the tree, clasped it, and with cups, leaves, hands, and tongues each one obtained enough of the liquid to send him mad and frantic.—Dr. Jay in the South Australian Register.

The Philadelphia Ledger says: The outlook for an early resumption of work in the striking coal regions is considered more favorable, but when and on what terms the resumption will take place is not definitely stated. It is, however, more and more apparent that there will be no such scarcity of coal as to admit of exorbitant and oppressive prices of fuel.

"Hopper-cusses" is the latest name for them out West. And the Chicago grain merchants pray that they may continue to prey.

The remarkable time made by the horse Searcher at the Lexington, Ky., races last week was taxed the credulity of turfmen somewhat, but the full accounts of the performance as given by the Lexington papers will doubtless go far toward converting the doubting Thomases. It was a running race and three horses were entered, Searcher being the favorite. At the tap of the drum Searcher started off at a terrific rate, leading his competitors by several lengths. He never slacked pace, but under a steady pull bore away past the first quarter pole and down the back stretch, his jockey being unable to check him in his mad career. The first half-mile pole was passed in forty-eight and a half seconds. He increased his lead under a steady pull, and coming down the homestretch he seemed to slacken pace, though running at a terrific rate. Observing this, the spectators shouted, "Go on, go on!" The jockey looked back to see where the other horses were, while the crowd shouted, "Shut 'em out, shut 'em out." Then the jockey gave Searcher the rein, and he came on ahead gallantly, passing under the string just in time to shut out the second horse, who was coming along gallantly under the whip and spur, and in another jump or two would have saved her distance. Searcher made the mile in the unprecedented time of 1:41¾. The first half mile was made in 48½ seconds, and the last half in 53¼ seconds. Searcher is a very fine bay colt, standing fifteen hands and two and a half inches high, with plenty of growth yet. He is very long in the body and has a wonderful stride when in action. The time made, 1:41¾, is, for one mile, the fastest on record, the fastest previous to it being that made by Gray Planet at Saratoga last August, running against time in 1:42¾.

Judge Porter continued his speech for the defence Monday in the Beecher case again occupying uninterruptedly the entire session of the Court without concluding. His remarks were mainly devoted to a searching analysis and bitter review of the testimony for the plaintiff. Whatever of denunciation or invective the English language furnishes, it seemed that he sought to employ it all. Tilton and Moulton were of course the special objects of attack. More than once he addressed the former personally, applying to him the harshest language and even epithets. Counsel was again and repeatedly almost excessive in his laudation of Beecher, speaking of the vividness and impressiveness of his discourses, reminding one, he said, of old Homer or Shakspeare.

A BIG DAY'S WORK IN BANK.—The Comptroller of the Currency has authorized the following new national banks to commence business: First National, of Dexter, Maine, capital $100,000; Manufacturers' National, of Lewistown, Maine, $100,000; National, of Newport, Vermont, $100,000; German National, Alleghany, Penn., $200,000; Citizens' National, New Bedford, Mass., $250,000; National, Springfield, Mass., $100,000. This is a larger number of banks in any one day authorized to commence business for several years.

OFFICIAL REPORT.

The following is the sworn report of sales of Sewing Machines made by the leading Companies for 1874. An examination of the figures below will show that the "Singer" has largely increased its sales, while the other companies have fallen off.

The Singer has shown a large increase in sales every year as the statement below for the last four years will prove.

In 1871 the Singer sold 52,731 more machines than their highest competitor.

In 1872 the Singer sold 45,635 more machines than their highest competitor.

In 1873 the Singer sold 113 254 more machines than their highest competitor.

In 1874 the Singer sold 148,852 more machines than their highest competitor.

Making the total sum of 875,137 machines which was 300,595 more than their highest competitor. This fact proves the great superiority of the "I. GEE" over any other machine. Now the question is, how long will this state of affairs last? How long will the other companies be able to keep offices open in the different cities and towns when they are selling so few machines?

Persons who think of buying or exchanging old ones (of whatever kind) are invited to consult their interest by getting a reliable machine from the old and reliable Singer Manufacturing Company,

THE DAILY NEWS.

THURSDAY..... MAY 27 1875.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Oxford Torch Lig.t will enter upon the third volume next week. It is a readable paper and one of our best exchanges. We are glad to know it is prosperous.

The eighteen carat fraud, Chas. Wesley Warner, so well known in Wilmington, turns up again in Baltimore at his same old tricks as a "gay deceiver."

Mr. Lyerly of Salisbury killed a hog last week which is said to have weighed 1000 pounds. Such a monster comes but once a century, and it was appropriately slaughtered for the Centennial feast.

Mr. J. N. Staples will deliver the annual address before the Reidsville High School on Friday, the 4th of June. The auditors may be assured of a chaste and beautiful address, for Mr. Staples has few superiors as a graceful writer and an impressive speaker.

A historical sketch of the flag of the 12th U. S. Infantry, carried through the Mexican war by Captain C. R. Jones, (father of the editor of the Charlotte Observer) and Lieutenant (afterward Colonel and Judge) Edward Cantwell, is published in a late number of the Observer. The flag was borne by a son of Judge Cantwell in the procession at the Centennial.

Says the Hillsboro Recorder: We had the pleasure of meeting at the Charlotte celebration, an old Person County friend, Mr. Thomas Holman Jr., who had come in from his distant home in Memphis purposely to attend this grand demonstration of his native State. He was accompanied by several other Tenneseeans, descendants of North Carolinians, who were moved by the same patriotic impulse. We are glad to inform the friends of Mr. Holman that he is well, and cherishing the most lively affection for his old home.

Another instance of the evil operations of the usury law is taken from the Star. It says: "The directors of the Wilmington Trust Company and Savings Bank have determined to pay off its depositors and close up. This is another instance of the evil effects of the usury bill passed by our Legislature. Soon every savings bank in the State will be closed, and thousands of poor people who have heretofore had some safe place for depositing their little saving at interest, will have no inducement to be economical."

THE DEATH OF POLK.

Simonson's Shot that Killed Bishop Polk—The Tragedy Graphically Described by an Eye-witness.

[From the N. Y. Herald, May 19th.

To the Editor of the Herald:—

In your review of "Sherman's Memoirs" what purports to be a statement of the manner in which General Polk was killed is given, from which it appears that Sherman called General Howard's attention to a group of officers on Pine Mountain, and "ordered him to compel it to keep under cover." Will you permit one who was attached to General Howard's headquarters, and who was by his side daily on the Atlanta campaign—one who, with Howard and other officers, sat on our horses beside the Fifth Indiana battery that fired the fatal shot—to give the true story from my notes made that morning and published in a Western daily a few weeks afterward? There certainly is a grievous error either in your review or in Sherman's description of the tragedy. General Sherman was not there and could not have seen the shot fired. General Sherman may have, however, as he rode to the rear, where he met Howard, called his attention to what he (Howard) would see when our party reached General David Stanley's front. The facts—in which I am sure I will be sustained in the main by Generals Howard and Stanley and the staff officers present—are these:—

On June 14 General Howard and staff left their headquarters for the front, where Stanley's division of Howard's (Fourth) corps had broken camp and were awaiting the order to attack Pine Mountain. It was just after sunrise. A mile or two in rear of the advance Howard met Sherman, but the conversation between them I did not hear, as the two generals conversed aside. Howard and staff joined Stanley and his staff on the road, in full view of Pine Mountain, and as we drew rein and exchanged greetings Stanly exclaimed:

"Howard, do you see that group up there on the crest of the Mount of the mountain? I wonder who they are."

We all brought our field glasses to bear upon the point indicated and could plainly see three persons standing in front of a line of breastworks and a larger group in the background. We could not tell whether they were officers or privates, but as it was evident that they were watching our movements Stanley suggested that a few shots be fired to drive them under cover. Howard, who had suggested that perhaps Bishop Polk was in the party, made no objections, when Stanley turned to Captain Simonson, his chief of artillery, with the remark:

"Simonson, can't you unlimber, put a shot into the group and give the Bishop a morning salutation?"

"I'll try!" was Simonson's laconic reply. And away he galloped to the rear. A few minutes later a section of the Fifth Indiana battery (Simonson's) was unlimbered within twenty feet of us. The Lieutenant sighted the gun and the shot exploded over and to the right of the group. Here my memory fails me, but my impression is a second shot was sighted and fired by the Lieutenant with no better effect. Simonson, when the gun had been reloaded, dismounted and said, "Here, Lieutenant, let me try it." He took the range and the messenger of death sped on its mission. Our glasses were bent upon the group and we observed a commotion as the shot took effect in the group that scattered to the rear. While Simonson was upon his knees sighting the gun for another discharge, Captain Leonard, chief of Howard's Signal corps, sitting on his horse beside me, read the Confederate signal code that our officers had interpreted at Lookout Mountain and caught the words:

"General Polk is killed!" With a look of amazement Leonard turned to Howard and Stanley and exclaimed:

"Bishop Polk is killed!"

"What?" exclaimed Howard; "have you interpreted the signal correctly?"

Yes, General; Simons last shot killed him. They are signalling it along the line."

The young men of the staff who were cracking jokes instantly ceased, and for a moment none spoke. Then Howard said:

"Well, a Christian has fallen. Such is war."

Just then Simonson caught the words, "Bishop Polk is killed!"

He was sighting the gun, and, lifting his eyes, that glared fearfully, exclaimed:

"What is that, Leonard?"

"Bishop Polk is killed! Your last shot did it. They are signalling it over the mountain," I replied.

Simons head dropped upon the "vent," where it rested a moment. Then, raising his eyes, he exclaimed:

"Thank God! Yesterday they killed my dear brother; I have killed a Lieutenant-General and am avenged!"

Without discharging the piece Simonson arose, remounted and joined the staff.—Silently he repaired to his regular duties and, the line being formed, we advanced slowly against the mountain, every one of us feeling that we would have rejoiced had some other than Louisiana's fighting bishop gone down before Simonson's first and only shot. The enemy was so demoralized that he evacuated the mountain, and half an hour afterward we stood upon the spot where Polk fell and saw the ground stained with his blood. A day or two after poor Simonson, the only one of us who rejoiced at the Bishop's death, fell, shot on the skirmish line in Ackworth woods.

Then was the Confederacy avenged. It is possible that General Sherman had been to the front that morning, and, seeing the group referred to, ordered Howard to disperse it; but certain it is that he was nowhere near Howard when Simonson's shot felt for the heart of Leonidas Polk, the fighting Bishop.

VALUABLE RAILROAD PROPERTY For Sale.

Pursuant to a Decree of the Circuit Court of the United States; for the Western District of North Carolina at the April Term, 1875, at Greensboro, in a proceeding then and there pending in Equity, to foreclose a mortgage mentioned in the pleadings between Henry Clews and Hiram Sibley and others, Plaintiffs,

AGAINST

The Western North Carolina Railroad Co. (E. D.) Tod. R. Caldwell, Rufus Y. McAden, The First National Bank of Charlotte, John Rutherford, Hiram Kelly, Thomas G. Greenlee, James Greenlee, Mary Carson, A. H. Erwin, N. H. D. Wilson, Assignee, R. M. Walker, and others, Defendants.

The undersigned, Commissioners appointed by the Court at the said April Term thereof, will sell at the Court House door in the City of at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, all the franchises, road, road-beds, rolling stock and property of every kind, nature and description belonging to the said, THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD COMPANY, mentioned and described in the said Decree.

The purchaser or purchasers will be required to pay to the Commissioners TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS IN CASH on the day of sale, and will be given credit for the balance of the purchase money until Monday the 5th day of July, 1875, the first rule day of said Court, at Greensboro, N. C., next ensuing after the day of sale.

Those who purchase at said sale, provided they be holders of the bonds secured by the mortgage mentioned in the said Decree, may retain their shares of the purchase money, except as to the said sum of $10,000.00, by surrendering to the Commissioners an equal amount of said bonds.

The said Commissioners are authorized, so soon as the said sale shall be confirmed by the Court, to give immediate possession of the said Railroad, its property and effects of every kind and description; and all persons who may be in possession of the said Railroad or any of its property are commanded to surrender the same to the purchasers upon the production of the Commissioners' deed to them.

This end, when its connections shall be completed, will form one of the most IMPORTANT THOROUGHFARES in the entire south. Its length is 142 miles, of which 115 miles is complete; that is from Salisbury to Old Fort in McDowell county, at the Eastern base of the Blue Ridge; and the greater part of the remainder of the road is graded, or nearly so.

There has already been expended upon this road, about $6,000,000.00. It is now sold to satisfy a debt of about $1,400,000.00—which constitutes the first lien upon the property. The Commissioners believe that the title of the purchaser will be good.

MEDICINAL.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

SIMMON'S LIVER REGULATOR

For all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen. It is eminently a Family Medicine; and by being kept ready for immediate resort will save many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in time and doctor's bills.

After Forty Years trial it is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials of its virtues from persons of the highest character and responsibility. Eminent physicians commend it as the most for CONSTIPATION, HEADACHE, PAIN in the SHOULDERS, DIZZINESS, SOUR STOMACH, bad taste in the mouth, BILIOUS ATTACKS, PALPITATION, of the HEART, PAIN in the region of the KIDNEYS, DESPONDENCY, GLOOM and for bodings of EVIL, all of which are the offspring of a diseased LIVER.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly, poor appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from TORPID LIVER, or "BILIOUSNESS," and nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently.

The LIVER, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness, and DEATH will ensue.

Armed with this ANTIDOTE, all climates and changes of water and food may be faced without fear. As a Remedy in MALARIOUS FEVERS, BOWEL COMPLAINTS, RESTLESSNESS, JAUNDICE, NAUSEA,

The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World!!

I have never seen or tried such a simple, efficacious, satisfactory and pleasant remedy in my life." H. HAINER, St Louis, Mo.

Hon. Alex. H. Stephens.

"I occasionally use, when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator, with good effect." HON. ALEX. H. STEPHENS.

Governor of Alabama:

"Your Regulator has been in use in my family for some time, and I am persuaded it is a valuable addition to the medical science.—Gov't J. GILL SHORTER, Ala.

"I have used the Regulator in my family for the past seventeen years. I can safely recommend it to the world as the best medicine I have ever used for that class of diseases it purports to cure." H. F. THIGPEN, President of City Bank.

"Simmons' Liver Regulator has proved a good and efficacious medicine."—C. A. NUTTING, Druggist.

We have been acquainted with Dr. Simmons' Liver Medicine for more than 20 years, and know it to be the best Liver Regulator ever offered to the public"—M. R. LYON and H. L. LYON, Bellefontaine, Ga.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

For DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, Jaundice, Bilious attacks, SICK HEADACHE, Colic, Depression of spirits, SOUR STOMACH, Heart-Burn, &c., &c.

IT H S NO EQUAL.

It is a faultless family medicine.
Does disarrange the system.
Is sure to cure if taken regularly.
Is no drastic violent medicine.
Does not interfere with business.
Is no intoxicating beverage.
Contains the simplest and best remedies.

CAUTION!

Buy no Powders or Prepared SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR unless in our engraved wrapper with Trade Mark, Stamp and Signature unbroken, None other is genuine.

J. H. ZEILIN & CO.,
Macon, Ga., and Philadelphia.

THE SYMPTOMS of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is MISTAKEN for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with LOSS OF APPETITE and sickness, bowels in general COSTIVE, sometimes alternating with lax. The HEAD is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable LOSS OF MEMORY, accompanied with painful sensation of having LEFT UNDONE something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, DEBILITY, and low spirits. Sometimes MANY of the above symtoms attend the disease, and at other times very FEW of them; but the LIVER is generally the organ most involved.

Nearly all diseases originate from Indigestion and Torpidity of the Liver, and relief is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is Regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. Want of action in the Liver causes Headache, Constipation, Jaundice, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Chills, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Bad taste in the mouth, Bilious attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, depression of spirits, or the blues, and a hundred other symptoms, for which SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is the best remedy that has ever been discovered. It acts mildly, effectually, and being a simple vegetable compound, can do no injury in any quantities that it may be taken. It is harmless in every way; it has been used for forty years, and hundreds of the good and great from all parts of the country will vouch for its being the purest and best.

THE CLERGY.

"My wife and self have used the Regulator for years, and testify to its great virtues."—REV. J. R. FELDER, Perry, Ga.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Erie Railroad Affairs.

NEW YORK, May 26.—President Jewett has called a meeting of the Erie Directory in consequence of the refusal of the Pennsylvania coal companies to buy the Erie coal lands.

The Tribune says a Director of the Erie R. R. Co., in a conversation with one of its reporters last night said that the Company will probably be in default in the payment of its June interest in consequence of failure to obtain expected monies from Delaware, Lackawanna, and Western and Delaware, and Delaware and Hillsdale companies. In consequense of this fact there will probably be an application for a receiver on Wednesday.

This action will be taken unde the State law and will be designed to protect all interests concerned.

Foreign News.

BERLIN, May 26.—The Government forbids a procession in honor of the Pope's jubilee.

VIENNA, May 26.—The bearer of an anonymous letter offering a million florins for Bismark's assassination has been arrested

ROME, May 26.—The Pope is not seriously ill.

PARIS, May 26.—The Bishop of Mismes is dead.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

ST. LOUIS, May 26th.—Most of the time of the Presbyterian Assembly was taken up yesterday in listening to the reading of the record in the Wilson case. This was finally finished and to day the Rev. Stewart Robinson will make an argument for Louisville Presbytery and Rev. J. J. Cooke for the complainant.

Another Recruit for the Khedive's Army.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Major Chas. I. Graves, of Rome, Georgia, is here en route for Egypt, to enter the Khedive's service as Lt. Col. of Engineers. Major Graves was a Federal graduate, but thought his honor called him to the South.

The Derby Races.

LONDON, May 26.—The great event on the English racing Calander, the run for the Derby stakes, took place to-day on Epsom Lawns and was won by Galopin. Claremoupt came in second and the Repentance colt third. There were lighter starters.

Miscellaneous Items.

A dispatch from St. Joseph, Mo., says the heavy rains have drenched millions of grasshoppers.

Mr. Jewett, President of the Erie Railway company, has been appointed Receiver of the road by the Supreme Court.

A Wilksboro dispatch says it is thought the mining business will resume on the first day of June.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The "Faith" of the Pennsylvania Republicans.

LANCASTER, PA., May 26th.—The Republican State Convention was called to order by Russell Everett, Chairman of the State Committee, at 12 o'clock. John C. Essna was elected temporary Chairman. After the roll call several committees including one of thirteen on resolutions, aud platform were appointed. Hon. E. McPherson is chairman of the committee on platform.

The Convention adopted resolutions affirming their continued adhesion to the party, and declare the fundamental principles of their political faith as follows. First, the equality of all men before the law, equal justice to all, and especial favors to none; second, the harmony of the National and State Government, both are parts of a system alike, necessary for the common prosperity, peace and security Third, the unity of the nation, we are one people, the Constitution of the United States forms a government not a league; Fourth, a faithful execution of the laws, an economical administration of the Government integrity in office, honesty in all branches of the civil service and a rigid accountability of public officers; Fifth, protection to home industry and home market for home products; Sixth, the right of the laborer to protection and encouragement, and the promotion of harmony between labor and capital: seventh, cheap transportation and the advancement of closer intercouse between all parts of the country; eighth, free banking, a safe and uniform national currency adjusted to the growing wants of the business interests of the country, and a steady reduction of the national debt; ninth, the public demon being the heritage of the people should be reserved for actual settlers exclusively; tenth, the equalization of the bounties of soldiers and a speedy settlement of all just claims arising out of the late war; eleventh, honest men in office, men with brains enough to know dishonesty when they see it, and courage enough to fight it wherever they find it. The resolutions also declare against the third term, but eulogize the administration of Grant.

The convention was peramnently organized by the election of General Hardy White as President.

Derby Races.

LONDON, May 26.—There was a dense crowd at Derby race, including the Prince and Princess of Wales the Duke and Duchess of Edinburg, the Marquis and Marchioness of Lorne and the Duke of Cambridge. The weather was fine. The betting against Galapin was two to one, against Claremont 14 to 1, and against the Repentance Colt, 12 to 1. Galapin won easily by a length. Garterly Bell came in fourth, followed in the order by Seymour, Lord Bereurs French, Bay of Naples, Baife Earl of Dautrey, Gilbert Woodward, Temple Bar, Fareham Evalstone, Camball's Breechloader and Telescope. The time of race was 2:47.

Miscellaneous Items.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company was held yesterday and the Board of Directors for the ensuing year elected.

The International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association convened in Richmond, on, yesterday. Over 400 delegates in attendance, representing 30 States, territories and provinces. Joseph Hardie, of Selma, Ala., was elected President.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Sioux Visit the President—That Official Advises the Indians to Leave the Black Hills to the Pale Face—Other Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Sioux Indians visited the President to-day, who made a speech on the subject of another location for them. He did not want them to leave their homes where they were born without their consent, but would point out the advantages of entering into an agreement that he would propose through the Interior Department. The President alluded to the great difficulty in keeping the whites away from the Black Hills, and said each recurring year the difficulty would be greater unless the Indians grant the right to go to that country. No speeches were made by the Indians, except that Spotted Tail with some show of indignation denied that he had said the Secretary of Interior was a liar.

The Attorney General Pierrepont has issued a circular that "hereafter the practice of the District attornies of employing substitutes must be discontinued, and no compensation for such services rendered to the Department will be sanctioned.

Presbyterian Church, North.

CLEAVELAND, May 26.—In the Presbyterian General Assembly, a resolution was adopted regretting that the negotiation relating to fraternal correspondence with the Southern Church failed. The Assembly however deems it inexpedient to press the question through another committee and at the same time expresses unequiovocally its confidence in the integrity and Christian character of brethren of the Southern church.

Terrible Fall of a Scaffold,

CINCINNATI, May 26.—A dispatch from Columbus says that while some men were at work on a scaffold putting a truss roof on the Central Ohio Lunatic Asylum, the scaffold gave way precipitating six of them to the ground, a distance of seventy feet, instantly killing three, named Geo. Brown, Jerry Ryan and Albert Gottleeib, and fatally injuring the other three named Ben Smith, Wm. Harmon and Fred Kuntz.

The National Cotton Exchange will hold its next annual meeting at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, on July 21st.
